

2006 Program Archive

Date	Location	Topic	Speaker (s)	Notes
7-Dec-06	The Chicago Center for Green Technology	Trading Greenbacks for Green - The Real Cost of LEED		Recognized professionals in sustainable design, cost estimating, and construction will address the cost basis for construction projects incorporating LEED, the Chicago Standard, and Sustainable Design.
2-Nov-06	The Chicago Bar Association	Defining Risk - Eliminating Ambiguity	Kenneth D. Brienzo, PE	Ken will draw from his experience in the nuclear power industry to describe the methods and applications for Probabilistic Risk Assessment that were developed to survive in the regulatory climate following Three Mile Island. He will also discuss how NASA soon followed suit and augmented its Failure Modes and Effects Analysis program (FMEA) with PRA.
21-Sep-06	The Chicago Bar Association	Demolition As A Necessary Evil - An Intelligent Approach To A Volatile Project Cost	Bill Moore, Brandenburg Industrial Service Company Vice President, Marketing	Bill will show what pitfalls to watch for, how to save money on demo, how to stay out of court, how we recycle & salvage materials from jobs, and show slides of specific examples.
21-Mar-06	Maggiano's	A Value Engineering Cost Model - I-94 Case Study	Muthiah Kasi, CVS (Life), P.E., S.E.	Joint meeting of the Metropolitan Chicago Chapter of SAVE and the Chicago Chapter of AACE International. Muthiah Kasi, CVS (Life), PE, SE will present the topic, "A Value Engineering Cost Model - I-94 Case Study."

2006 Program Archive

Date	Location	Topic	Speaker (s)	Notes
2-Feb-06	Sargent and Lundy	General Forecasting Resource Needs - An Engineering Perspective	William B. Paschal, P.E. Vice-President, Engineering Director Fossil Power Technologies Business Group, Sargent & Lundy LLC	S & L has implemented a series of initiatives that provides their managers with a reasonably accurate view of their current and future workload. Bill's presentation will focus on the three key initiatives that has made this system a success.
29-Jan-06	Court Theater	Social Meeting		Pulitzer Prize winning play "Fences" being performed at the Court Theater